CSCI Is the Newest Addition to GSA

CSCI to provide Information Technology Services

Springfield, Va., December 2, 2009 - Computer Systems Center Incorporated (CSCI) is pleased to announce the award of its first schedule contract by the General Services Administration (GSA) for Information Technology (IT) Professional Services, Equipment and Software. The GSA Schedule provides the federal government with high-quality services and supplies at volume pricing. This new contract allows CSCI to pre-qualify for an expansive array of government contracts that simplifies and abbreviates the bidding process for government agencies seeking the expertise of CSCI and other government contractors.

This award concludes a substantial and in-depth review process by the GSA of CSCI's services. For the duration of the contract term, Government agencies will be able to more easily access CSCI's services without the lengthy negotiation process required of those companies not authorized for awards on the schedule. With this new award, CSCI becomes authorized supplier under the Special Item Number (SIN) 132-51 for Information Technology Professional Services. Under this Special Item number, CSCI professional services available under the GSA Award are as follows:

- D301 IT Facility Operation and Maintenance
